CITY OF BANGOR.

AN ORDINANCE establishing a Police for the City of Bangor, and defining their duties.

Be it ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bangor, in City Council assembled—

Sect 1. That there is, and is hereby established a Police for the City of Bangor, to consist of a City Marshal, who shall be, ex officio, Chief of Police, and not less than six nor more than nine, unless by concurrent vote of the City Council, Deputy Policemen, who shall be men of sobriety, integrity and activity.

Sect 2. The City Marshal shall be chosen by the City Council in convention, on the fourth Monday of March, annually, and shall hold his office for the term of one year, unless sooner removed by the City Council, and he shall also be elected a Constable of said city. Before entering upon the duties of his said offices, he shall be duly sworn and shall give bonds to the City for the faithful performance thereof, both as Marshal and Constable respectively —said bonds to be in the sum of two hundred dollars as Marshal, and one hundred dollars as Constable, with sureties, to be approved by the Mayor and Aldermen.

Sect. 3 It shall be the duty of the City Marshal, from time to time, not less than once in each week, by himself or Deputy, to pass through every street, lane, alley and open court of the city within one-half mile of Kenduskeag Bridge, to observe nuisances and obstructions therein, to the end that the same may be removed, or the offenders prosecuted according to law, to notice all offences against the laws and ordinances; to be vigilant and active in detecting any violation or breach of any law or city ordinances, taking the names of the offenders, that they may be prosecuted—and to prosecute all such offenders as soon as may be, after their detection and arrest; to receive complaints of the inhabitants made against any person for breach of the laws or ordinances, and for that purpose shall attend daily at some convenient place and stated hours. It shall be his duty to carry into effect, to the utmost of his power, all and every of the by-laws and City ordinances, and to obey and execute all the orders of the Mayor and Aldermen or City Council in relation to any matter or thing in which the City is, or may be, in any wise, concerned or interested—to attend regularly and punctually on all trials of offenders by him prosecuted in behalf of the City, and to use all lawful means for the effectual prosecution and final conviction of offenders, to execute all summonses, warrants and precepts issued by the Mayor or City Council or either branch thereof, or any Committee of the same, and to serve any notification upon the members of any Committee, or upon any Officers elected by the City Council or by the Mayor and Aldermen, when thereunto required. He shall prepare the rooms which may be selected for Ward meetings, and see that they are put in order after the meetings shall have adjourned—and shall, by himself or by Deputy, be in attendance at all sessions of the City Council, or either branch thereof, and officiate as Messenger for either Board. He shall keep a book or books, in which he shall enter in convenient form for reference all arrests made by him or any Deputy Policeman, together with the cause of arrest and final disposition of each case, and also all fines, fees or other monies by him received in his official capacity—and in the first week of March in each year, he shall make a full report in writing, to the City Council, of all matters connected with the business of the Police Department during the year. Whenever he shall be absent from the City, or confined by sickness, he may designate one of the Deputy Policemen to officiate for him, and such Policeman shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the City Marshal during such absence or disability of the Marshal.

Sect. 4. In the month of March or April annually, such number of Deputy Policemen as the Mayor and Aldermen shall deem necessary, not less than six, nor more than nine unless by concurrent vote of the City Council, shall be nominated by the Mayor and confirmed by the Aldermen—and additional Deputy Policemen may be appointed, and vacancies filled in like manner, from time to time, as exigencies may require—all of whom shall be removable at the discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen.

Sect. 5. Each of said Deputy Policemen, before entering upon his duties, shall be duly sworn, and give bond to the City in the sum of two hundred dollars with sureties, to be approved by the Mayor and Aldermen, for the faithful performance of his official duties.

Sect. 6. The Mayor, whenever in his judgment, the public necessity requires, may appoint one or more persons to be denominated Special Policemen, who shall severally be duly sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall hold their said office until discharged by the Mayor—but not beyond the regular meeting of the City Council, held next after such appointment.

Sect. 7. The Deputy and Special Policemen shall be under the immediate charge and control of the City Marshal, who shall determine their probable duties when two or more of them shall be on duty together, and shall assign the hours of service and limits of each—and it shall be his duty to bring to the notice of the Mayor and Aldermen all instances of neglect of duty or misconduct in office, of said Policemen, as soon as the same shall come to his knowledge.

Sect. 8. That portion of the Police to whom shall be assigned the duty of serving in the night time, shall constitute the City Watch, and possess all the powers and perform all the duties specified in the twenty-fifth chapter of the Revised Statutes of Maine, as the powers and duties of Watchmen—They shall arrest and safely keep all disorderly and drunken, disorderly or riotous persons, without distinction, who may disturb the quiet of the City or the good order thereof; and it shall be their duty to report to the City Marshal, as soon as may be, all violations of law or the ordinances of the City, which may come under their cognizance, and to be vigilant in all matters of police duty, so that offenders may be prosecuted as well as detected.

Sect. 9. The City Marshal and each Deputy Policeman shall, quarterly, and at such other times as the Mayor and Aldermen may direct, account to and pay over to the City Treasurer, for the use of the City, all fees and compensation of every description (except his salary fixed by the City Council) received by him for the performance of any official duty, whether as Marshal, Constable or Policeman, or in any other capacity, including all fees as witness in the Police Court and all other courts within the County of Penobscot: provided, that the foregoing provision shall not apply to proceedings in civil suits.

Sect 10. No payment of compensation shall at any time be made from the City Treasury to the City Marshal or any Policeman, until such officer shall report in writing to the City Treasurer, an account in detail and under oath, of all business compensation as specified in the foregoing section of this ordinance, by him received, since the date of his last report or the commencement of his term of office, and of all sums due him for the same, nor until such officer shall make and deliver to the City Treasurer an assignment of and an order for all sums due from the State or County Treasury, or other sources for fees and services, and until said reports, assignment, and order shall be approved by the Mayor.

Sect. 11. The City Marshal and Policemen shall each, at all times, when engaged in official duty, wear a badge, to be prescribed by the Mayor and Aldermen.

Sect. 12. The compensation of the City Marshal and Deputy Policemen shall be such sum as the City Council shall annually determine. The compensation of the special Policemen shall be [illegible] not exceeding two dollars per day while on duty, and the Mayor is authorized to draw his order for the same, upon the certificate of the City Marshal, of the amount of service rendered.

Sect. 13. All ordinances and parts of ordinances now in force, providing for the election, appointment, duties and compensation of City Marshal, Deputy Marshals, Watchmen, or Special Policemen are hereby repealed—but said ordinances shall remain in force, so far as relates to the election of the City Marshal and other subordinate officers chosen or appointed under said ordinances, and the continuing said Marshal and officers in office, in the same manner as if said ordinances were not repealed.

Passed April 20.

CURE FOR PIN WORMS

DR. E. G. GOULD'S

PIN-WORM SYRUP

IS the first and only remedy ever offered to the public for the effectual removal of the ascarides, or Pin-Worms, from the human system. The high reputation it has established in the last two years and the fact that it is fast superseding all other worm remedies, is the best test of its great merit.

It affords Relief in twenty-four hours, and an Entire Cure is Warranted when taken according to directions, which accompany each bottle.

This Syrup is also a most valuable family cathartic, to be always used when physic is required, especially for children. It corrects the secretions, gives tone to the stomach and bowels, assisting nature in her efforts to restore health. It is purely of Vegetable Extracts, and always safe and reliable

NEW YORK, 27th

Correspondence from Key West is to the 21st inst

There were in port about 30 prize vessels whose cases were yet to be disposed of by the court, and other cases are added almost every day.

The gunboat Saginaw, during a cruise up the west coast, had destroyed two blockade runners loaded with cotton and grain, at Bay Port, after a sharp contest with the rebels

NEW YORK, 27th.

The Herald's despatch says the enemy has increased his force along the heights back of Fredericksburg, and strengthened his pickets Their camps, are much more numerous, and their troops can be seen drilling at almost all hours of the day.

WASHINGTON, 26th.

The 7th and 8th New York Regiments arrived at Sixth street wharf this afternoon, and were escorted to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad depot by a squadron of Scott's 900 cavalry The 7th regiment had 5,2 men and the 8th, 600 men. These regiments marched without arms, having declined to re enter the service as regiments. It is said that a large portion of the officers and men will re enlist after being mustered out of the present term of service

NEW YORK, 27th

Official despatches received to-day from the commanders of the army and navy before Vicksburg, announce that another fleet has been successful in passing the rebel batteries. Five hundred shots were fired at them, and almost every vessel was hit, but no gunboat was injured and only one transport sunk

The Tribune has official news from Mexico to April 1st. The reported loss of 60 pieces of artillery and 8000 men by the French is untrue. The news recently received via San Francisco, is in the main, correct The French suffered several repulses at Puebla, but finally compelled the Mexicans to abandon Fort San Javier, not however, until they had removed all the artillery and ammunition. The fort was a heap of ruins, and a new one has been built in its rear.

Up to April 7th, no news favorable to the French had reached Vera Cruz The inference is that the Mexicans are still holding out bravely.

PHILADELPHIA, 27th

Jno Patterson, of the Liverpool Corn Exchange, met the members of the Corn Exchange here this forenoon, and made a speech, expressing the gratitude of the operatives of Lancashire for the Philadelphia contribution towards their relief He also reviewed the course of policy of England, saying the people were with us in the war for the Union.

ST LOUIS, 27th.

A special despatch to the Democrat of this city from Patton, Bollinger County, dated yesterday, says General Marmaduke with 8000 men and 6 pieces of artillery left here last night on the Cape Girardeau road. He has stripped this section of the country, of everything moveable, robbing unionists and secessionists alike

His train consists of one hundred and fifty wagons loaded with plunder.

Cannonading is now heard in the rear of Cape Girardeau. If he remains there he will be annihilated by the command under Gen. Vandever. If he retreats in a southeasterly direction he will be hotly pursued by our force.

NEW YORK, 27th.

A Fortress Monroe letter of the 25th inst, to the Commercial says, yesterday morning a force of infantry, cavalry and artillery under Gen. Corcoran, was ordered to drive the enemy from rifle pits on the Edenton road. The artillery was opened on the rebels and the fire was returned by them

The infantry charged, taking the rifle pits at the point of the bayonet

The cavalry pursued and captured a number of prisoners The enemy were driven several miles and fell back on the main column of Longstreet's army, which is heavily intrenched Our troops returned to camp.

SACRAMENTO, Cal, 19th.

The Union League movement was inaugurated last night. There was a great meeting in the Agricultural Pavilion. Speeches were made by Governor Stanford, General Wright, Senator Conness and others.

Mr Conness in his speech noticed the reports circulated in the East, in regard to his probable co-operation with the copperheads, and indignantly repudiated any such intention. He defended the Administration, eulogized the President, and denounced as real abolitionists those who were striving to abolish the Government and Nation. The meeting was enthusiastic—The loyal pledge was largely signed.

A Union meeting was also held at Marysville and other towns. Measures were adopted to extend the loyal organization in every county in the State

SAN FRANCISCO, 26th.

It is understood that the Government has purchased here a fleet of steamships for coast and harbor service.

SACRAMENTO, 25th.

In addition to the appropriation of a half million of dollars from the counties of San Francisco, Sacramento and Placer, a bill granting State aid of 10,000 per mile to the Central Pacific Railroad passed the Legislature yesterday

The appropriation comes direct from the treasury and with the State aid already granted, secures beyond a doubt the early completion of the road across the Sierra Nevada mountains — The first division of the road is already graded.

The Crittenden Resolutions Killed by the South—The Knavery of the Cotton Senators.

From the Speech of Hon. Edward Everett, at Boston, April 9, 1863

The Crittenden resolutions, as we all know, were brought forward in the Senate, at the commencement of the session of 1860—61. They were intended by their venerable and patriotic mover, to afford a ground on which the border slave States could stand, solid enough to resist the torrent of secession I must confess I was in favor of their adoption, or of something resembling them. They were opposed at the north by those who deemed no further concessions on the subject of slavery necessary or expedient, and they were opposed by the Senators of the cotton-growing States, who were not only determined to accept for themselves no terms of compromise, but to prevent, if possible, the adoption of any measures which would satisfy the border slave States. These facts form the key to the course pursued in the Senate on the Crittenden resolutions. When they came up for consideration, Mr Clark of New Hampshire moved, as a substitute for the entire series, a short resolution, to the effect that the provisions of the Constitution itself were adequate to the preservation of the Union, which Mr Jefferson Davis about the same time had expressly admitted to be the case The first question was on the adoption of this substitute and this question was taken on the 16th of January The Senators from South Carolina had not occupied their seats for any part of the session. Mississippi seceded on the 9th of January, and Florida and Alabama on the 11th; after which the Senators from those States, though remaining in Washington, were absent from their places. Eight votes, which might have been given from the cotton-growing States, in favor of the Crittenden resolutions, were lost in this way

Nor was this the only, nor the most significant, indication of the wish of those States to defeat a compromise. When the question on the adoption of the resolutions was about to be put, a motion was made to postpone their consideration. It was decided in the negative by a vote of 25 yeas, and 30 noes, all the senators present from the cotton States voting with the Senators from the border States against the postponement The test question immediately followed on Mr Clark's substitute for the Crittenden resolutions; no other business intervened; not a word was uttered by any member of the Senate, and yet to the astonishment of all not in the secret, 48 votes only were given, instead of 55, as on the question immediately preceding Twenty-five votes were cast in favor of the substitute of Mr. Clark, (being the same votes which had been given for the postponement,) and only twenty three in favor of the Crittenden resolutions — Seven Senators who a moment before had voted with the border States against the postponement, now omitted to vote at all. Mr. Douglas was one of these, and stated to the Senate, a few moments afterward, that having been accidentally called out, he unintentionally lost the opportunity of recording his vote in favor of the Crittenden resolutions. The other six who withheld their votes were from the cotton-growing States Thus much appears from the journal of the Senate How and why these six votes were withheld shall be told by Gov Johnson who was a member of the Senate at the time, and took an active and patriotic part in the proceedings — "Who was it," he asks "that defeated the compromise? There was one Judah Benjamin, who stood right before me in the Senate, and when his name was called refused to vote Said I to him, why don't you vote? Turning round rather abruptly he replied, 'I will not consult you nor any other Senator in reference to my vote' I said, 'vote and comply with the Constitution and show yourself an honest man'" Five other Senators from the cotton States, Mr Slidell among the number, followed Mr Benjamin's example, and, though remaining in the Senate and not excused from voting, refused to answer when their names were called, and so Mr Clark's substitute was adopted by a majority of two. As soon as the vote was declared (says Gov Johnson) a telegraphic message was sent by Mr Benjamin to Louisiana, where the question of secession was still pending, that the Crittenden resolutions were lost and the Black Republicans were carrying everything before them!—Had those six Senators voted as it was their duty under the rules of the Senate to do, Mr. Clark's substitute for the Crittenden resolutions would have failed by a majority of four" If the Senators from the four seceding States had been in their seats, this majority might have been increased to twelve Six of them were in Washington, but they chose on the 16th of January not to consider themselves as competent to attend and give their votes in favor of the Crittenden resolutions Five days later they did consider themselves members sufficiently to make their appearance in the Senate Chamber and insult their colleagues by going through a concerted and ostentatious ceremony of withdrawal.

So much for the failure of the Crittenden resolutions This was the test vote. It was afterward reconsidered on the motion of Mr Cameron, made from personal courtesy to the venerable mover of the resolutions. Earnest debates took place, and various delays were interposed; the resolutions of the Peace Congress were at length brought in, and adopted by Mr Crittenden in lieu of his own resolutions; the remaining cotton States seceded, and all hope of the adoption of an effective compromise was abandoned; not, however, without the passage of a resolve, by the requisite majority of two-thirds in both Houses, proposing an amendment of the Constitution, that no change should thereafter be made in that instrument adverse to the interests of the South. How little was to be hoped from this or any other measures of peace, may be inferred from the remark of a leading member of the Committee of Thirty-three, from Alabama, that if the North would tender the South a blank sheet to write her own terms of compromise, the offer would not be accepted.

General Gilbert, one of the Union commanders in Kentucky, has issued the following orders, which has no doubt shocked the slaveholders:

LEXINGTON, Ky, March 28.

Union men of Kentucky are expected to contribute towards the defence of this State, and we do not think it becomes them to endeavor to have their negroes exempted from the labor necessary for the defence of this city. Neutrals and secession sympathizers may think themselves fortunate if they themselves are not forced to work in the trenches Men who will not defend their country, or sympathizers with those who wish to destroy it, have no rights that we are bound to respect.

A. S. GILBERT
Colonel Commanding Post.

THE CAPTURE OF THE REBEL BATTERY ON THE NANSEMOND The Suffolk correspondent of the New York Tribune gives the following account of the recent capture of a rebel battery of five guns on the Nansemond.

The immortal Nineteenth of April was celebrated by a portion of our forces here, in one of the most brilliant and successful expeditions that have taken place during the war. Just before dark last evening, about 500 men from the New York 89th and the Connecticut 8th, led by Captain Stevens of the 89th, crossed the Nansemond on a gunboat, and while the gunboat and batteries were shelling the enemy furiously, approached them unseen, until within a few yards, and then, with honest Northern cheers, and at the point of the bayonet, they charged on the battery, when the whole thing surrendered, the result being 5 beautiful brass cannon, and 7 commissioned officers and 121 men.

The horses, caissons, &c., being in the rear, were not captured with the rest The pieces were captured by the rebels at Frazer's Farm, in the seven days' fight, and at Harper's Ferry, or, as one of the officers told Major Smith, the Provost Marshal, they were "issued to the Confederates by the U S Ordnance Department." To which the Major replied, "But I believe the officers were not issued with them that time" Three of the guns are 12 pounders, and two 24-pound howitzers, some of which have Gen McCall's name and the rest General Fremont's name on them. The battery is the Fauquier county (Va) battery, and there are two companies of infantry from the 44th Alabama The battery had but five guns on account of the scarcity of horses, one of the prisoners informs me. This force occupied an old fort, built by General Huger, and had done no little mischief in interfering with our gunboats and the navigation of the river

Lieutenant Rodgers of the battery, says he has often heard it said that our men are brave, and that our officers are not, but that he has known nothing on either side so bold or daring, in his knowledge of the war

IMPROVED SITUATION Although the war news of the past week has indicated no important action, it has presented a variety of events favorable to the Union cause, which may prove of the greatest value hereafter. The bloodless failure at Charleston has left no bad impression upon the public mind, while the uncertainty in regard to the resumption of the attack has prevented the rebels from sending away their land forces to operate in other quarters The situation in North Carolina, which was the cause of of great anxiety a week ago, has been more than relieved by the rebel abandonment of their seige of Washington. General Foster and his determined little force deserve the gratitude of their loyal countrymen for the manner in which they have triumphed in this emergency — Equally worthy and more brilliant have been the efforts of General Peck at Suffolk, in completely foiling the rebel programme in that vicinity, which, if it had been successful, might have opened a campaign widely disastrous to us

The course of events at the West has been quite as gratifying. The running of the rebel batteries at Vicksburg by half a dozen of our gunboats, with a suitable force of transports, was equal to a victory Admiral Farragut will now have ten good boats, and a fair land force, to operate between Vicksburg and Port Hudson; and all who know his indomitable qualities are confident that he will soon give the world a favorable report of himself Below, General Banks' forces have already executed some effective movements of great value, and at the last accounts were entering upon the work of clearing the rebels out of Bayou Teche region, with the best prospects of success It is also reported that new movements in the rear of Vicksburg have been set on foot, in which the land and naval forces will co-operate — When, therefore, we consider these things, in connection with the excellent condition of Gen. Rosecrans' powerful army, backed as that will be by Gen Burnside, we have every reason to anticipate a speedy and brilliant turn to the progress of our affairs at the West.

—Boston Journal, 24th.

Since the above was written we have accounts of brilliant successes in Gen. Banks's movements.

A LETTER TO THE LORD. In a garden at Berlin a canary bird was found, bearing on its neck a small note. The address was unusual— "An den lieben Gott"—to the good Lord — The finder broke the seal, and found a sincere message, in accordance with the direction. It was written by a lady, an inmate of a private lunatic asylum. The unfortunate one, pleading for relief from her sad situation, asked a speedy death She complained that the misrule and self-will of a rude female attendant, were the cause of her suffering All explanations to her relatives were vain, because the attendant attributed her complainings to a diseased mind, and punished her for attempting to make known her situation

The benevolent individual who found the note, determined to investigate the matter — The lady's name was subscribed in full, so that her friends were found She was removed to another institution. In a few months the best wishes of her friends were gratified—she was restored The Lord had answered the letter

THE LATE CAPT WEBSTER—Why he was Executed by the Rebels. As has already been stated, Captain Alphonso Webster of the Third (loyal) Virginia Cavalry was executed at Richmond on the 10th inst. for violating his parole, he having taken up arms against the Confederacy, after his capture, and before his exchange. The Wheeling Intelligencer says Webster obtained a commission of Captain of Cavalry from Governor Pierpont in November last, on a forged letter of recommendation In the mean time he was captured by the rebels, was paroled, and had returned to his company; but the fact of the discovery of the forgery having leaked out, Captain Alphonso C Webster passed within the rebel lines to escape a trial by a federal court martial. It is supposed that, under these circumstances, he was again arrested by the rebels, and tried and convicted for violating his parole. Not much is known of Webster beyond what is above stated. He was thrown up to the surface by this rebellion from somewhere in Texas or the West, and was regarded as a very ignorant, but daring and resolute fellow He dealt with the rebels without mercy and without fear, and is reported to have killed a rebel officer, not long before his second arrest, by cutting his throat from ear to ear.

The brave young men who ran away to Canada, that they might avoid the draft, will be called upon to pack up "duds" and return home, to stand their little drafts, for the reason that a bill has been introduced into the Canadian Parliament providing for a return to the United States of all deserters from our army, and by the new conscription law every man whose name is drawn, and who fails to appear, is called a deserter, and when caught will be punished as being one —Boston Herald.

General Banks's Movement on the Lower Mississippi.

The advices received by telegraph yesterday morning, indicate that General Banks is doing a good and effectual work in clearing out the rebel forces and gunboats west of the Mississippi opposite New Orleans, and is up to the Red River, which is their grand channel of supplies from Arkansas and Texas. He has destroyed the land and naval forces in the Grand Lake region (a few miles north of "Berwick Bay" on the Gulf, and 60 miles west of New Orleans) and at last accounts was rapidly going up towards the Red River, between which and Grand Lake, the river Atchalalaya forms a water connection. "Opelousas," which it was expected he would occupy as soon as the 23d of April, is about half way from Grand Lake to the Red River—say 60 miles from each point. When the mouth and lower portion of Red River is under our control, and the west bank of the Mississippi below that point, we shall, then (in connection with Porter's fleet which has run the rebel batteries and got below Vicksburg) have substantially the full command of the whole Mississippi river so far as to prevent any great amount of rebel supplies passing across it any point. This is one of the most important movements of the war, and if fully successful will do more to cripple the rebel armies by cutting off their supplies, than all the other military operations of the campaign. It will also make the capture or evacuation of Vicksburg and Port Hudson a mere thing in the future.

A Chapter for Croakers.

The Providence Journal asks "whether there are at the South men who are by temperament and habit as dolorous and lugubrious croakers as some that we have here? We suppose there must be, as the tribe of human bat animals has representatives everywhere. Indeed the rebel papers lecture them soundly. But what would one of our well fed croakers do at the South? Or rather, what would he do here if we were in the desperate condition of the South?

Suppose our army was, as they say the rebel army is, living on half rations of meat, or no quarter rations, as a member of the Georgia legislature lately declared the whole army to be living. Suppose that our communication with the only States that could furnish meat in any considerable quantity, was cut off by the enemy. Suppose that our railroads were so dilapidated that the maximum speed attained on them was ten miles an hour, and that if there was an adequate supply of meat to have it could not be distributed. Suppose that a New York, as the wife of Mr. Foote of the rebel Congress writes is the case in Richmond, at a first class boarding house, one must be content to make his dinner of two boiled eggs, a slice of dry bread and cold water. Suppose that in Philadelphia and Cincinnati and Boston and Providence there were riots of hungry women, breaking open storehouses of flour to keep themselves and their children from starving. Suppose that the currency was so depreciated that it took six dollars of good paper to buy a gold dollar. Imagine flour selling at eighty dollars a barrel, as it is now in Jackson, Miss., and in Mobile, and wealthy men declaring, as, according to the Mobile News, they now declare in Alabama, that they have not for weeks tasted of flour. Conceive all the necessaries of life dear in proportion, and some of them, as shoes and boots, even denser, and almost impossible to obtain at any price. Suppose, then, that the government, with its innumerable hands reaching into every part of the country, stood ready to seize the provisions or cattle that you might have on hand, and to pay you what it chooses for them. Suppose, also, that four long, weary months were to be pass d before the early harvest would begin to come in. And then imagine our enemies girding us on every side, by land and sea, as a wall of fire, occupying a large part of our territory, flying their flag in every Northern State but one, and giving no signs of diminishing their usual vigor, but rather adding every day to their terrible engines of war. What sort of groans and jeremiads would these dolorous neighbors of ours, who now cast such a gloom around them with their cadaverous countenances, find to express their depth of anguish?"

The source from which the rebels have received early information of intended Union movements seems to have been discovered. James L. Addison, for thirty years a clerk in the War Department, and recently chief clerk in the Adjutant General's office, and his brother, who is chief clerk in the Pension Bureau, are the suspected parties. With the help of John Martin, a minister of the Gospel, and his daughter (who has for a lover a rebel captain), this villainous treachery has gone on for two years. If the case should be clearly proved against these men, and they are not promptly swung up, mowing hemp is but waste of time.—Tribune.

Addison's friends have "indignantly denied" the charge of treachery. The latest statement is that he has been "discharged" from his clerkship. If he has been removed from office, of course there is some evidence of the truth of the complaint against him. Is he and the villainous traitors with him to be permitted to go without further punishment? We trust not. If they are, traitors will continue to swarm in high places, and our expeditions continue to be furnished and defeated. The people have become utterly impatient at the "leniency" of the administration. They call for some effectual examples in the way of hanging treacherous villains like those spoken of above.

Word comes from the Northwest that the long continued favorable weather in which farmers have had no interruption of their spring operations, the season, has insured the sowing of an area of wheat greatly in excess of that put into small grain a year ago. The scarcity and high price of labor have been a drawback; but since the great advance in the remainder of the last year's crop, both of wheat and corn has replenished the agriculture exchequer, they are now so generously fit as was feared. Should the season for growth and harvest compare favorably with seed time, the country may look for a yield that is without example.

Massachusetts is ahead of Maine in extending aid to families of Volunteers. At the time the Auditor's report was rendered, bills had already been allowed for the year, 1862, amounting to $1 866,000, and the bills to come in would swell the amount to two millions of dollars, while Maine has paid from March 18, 1862 to January 1, 1863, on $221,810.92. In 1861 Massachusetts paid $442,134 62 to families of volunteers. So says the Portland Journal.

An immense copper nugget has been discovered at the Minnesota mine near Lake Superior. About thirty tons have already been taken from the mass, and how much more it will yield no one can conjecture as it dips at an angle of say forty degrees to the east, and hence a large portion of the overlying belt has to be mined before the mass can be reached.

The Mont Cenis Tunnel. Some interesting particulars of this vast undertaking have just been furnished to the lower House of the Italian Parliament by the Minister of Public Works. The length of the tunnel is to be over eight miles. Its northern opening is some 4,500 feet above the level of the sea; from this point it rises gradually up to a distance of 26,000 feet to the middle of the gallery, whence it slopes gradually to its southern opening at a height of about 4,000 feet above the sea. This tunnel was begun in 1857, and at the present time has attained a length of nearly 8,000 feet. The engineer thinks the whole undertaking will be achieved in about twelve and a half years. The total expense will be 85,000,000 francs. One thousand six hundred and twenty workmen are now employed on the work.

New Publications.

The Annual of Scientific Discovery or Year Book of Facts in Science and Art for 1863. Boston: Gould & Lincoln.

This is one of the most valuable publications for the mechanic, artist, and in fact, for every man in the community. It shows him the unusual progress in discoveries and improvements, not only in his own particular line of business, but in all others in which he may take an interest. It is edited by one of the most practical and eminent scientific men of the country, Dr. David A. Wells, A. M. The volume for 1863 contains an excellent portrait of Mr. Ericsson, the famous inventor of the "Monitors."

The book is for sale by E. F. Duren.

The Ministry of the Gospel. By Francis Wayland. This work is by the celebrated author of "Elements of Moral Science," &c., and needs no recommendation to secure it a wide perusal. It contains ten letters upon the duties, the example and the proper qualifications of the Christian pastor.

Rebel Finances. Mr. Memminger a few days ago sent a communication to the rebel Congress, in which he informs that body that the estimated expenses of carrying on the rebellion for the six months ending December 31, 1863, the last six months of the present year, will be, according to prices ruling in the South, fifty millions of dollars per month!

The negroes employed by General Foster to assist in defending Washington, N. C., each and have become reconciled to the plan of employing negro troops.

The Situation at Vicksburg. The situation at Vicksburg is thus summed up by the New York Tribune:

Opposite Vicksburg have been erected heavy batteries, which our correspondent says will be able to render the place untenable. A part of General Grant's army remains near his old base of operations to shatter these batteries and take advantage of whatever impression they may make on the enemy's works. Another and probably very considerable portion returned some time ago to Memphis and thence has been pushing down toward Granada in Central Mississippi, meaning doubtless to advance from that point to Jackson which is on the Northern Railroad, and forty miles east of Vicksburg, with which it connects by a branch road. This of course directly in the rear of Vicksburg, and on the only line of railroad communication enabling the garrison of the army under Gen. Pemberton, moved some time since down the Western bank of the Mississippi to New Carthage, about half way between Vicksburg and Grand Gulf, and from that point under cover of the fleet, will cross to the right bank, near the mouth of the Big Black River.

That stream is now full, and easily navigable by Admiral Porter's fleet. It is said to be, and no doubt is, strongly defended, and whatever is gained by the second ng fleet, must be won by hard fighting. But it confronts them to the rear of Vicksburg, there to meet the descending forces of Grant from Granada, and enables the divisions under Osterhaus to reach the same point, preserving their communication intact and insuring their complete co-operation.

These movements, if successful, or if either of them is successful, must bring the Vicksburg problem to a speedy solution. The rebel army is manifestly in danger of being cut off not merely from its base, and from communication with the great army now confronting Rosecrans in Tennessee, but from all means of retreat in case of disaster.

Supposing, what is very improbable, that an amount of supplies is stored in Vicksburg sufficient to support the rebel army for a few weeks, they must in the end either fight or surrender, and if they fight, must come out of their entrenchments to attack. They cannot retreat North, for that is to march into the enemy's country; cannot move South, for the Big Black will be in Admiral Porter's possession; of course cannot cross the Mississippi to the west; and in attempting to recover their communication with the East, must engage the entire force of two divisions of Grant's army that will have effected a junction at Jackson, or at some point between there and Vicksburg.

If General Johnston attempts to move against Grant from Tullahoma, he has Rosecrans on his trail. If he does not he will have him in his rear when the Vicksburg business is disposed of. In either event it does seem that General Grant has at last put his army where it properly belongs, and that the perpetual operation on exterior lines has been finally abandoned.

☞ Corporal Freeman R. Duren, of the 15th Massachusetts Regiment, First Army Corps, arrived in town last Saturday night, on a short furlough, and returned to his regiment at Fletcher's Chapel, Va., this morning.

Mr. Editor:

I noticed in Saturday's Whig that a "New Thing" had made its appearance in Bangor—a copperhead badge worn by a copperhead landlord from a neighboring town. I think that to be a good thing; it serves the same purpose the rattle does on the rattle snake—it warns you of their presence, and by that means to avoid being bitten. I was one of a pleasure party that visited that same landlord a short time since, and got bit "whereas if he had sprung his rattle or shown his badge, we should have avoided the reptile. I always supposed him to be a "meek" man, but that badge and talk indicated venom of the deadliest nature.

A HATER OF COPPERHEADS.

☞ The logs which went adrift from the boom at the "Drew Dam Water" on Saturday, have probably been stopped above Oldtown. None of them has passed here yesterday.

☞ The Ellsworth American says almost all keepers of the honey-bee complain this spring of the death of their bees. There is hardly a hive in the region that wintered well; in most instances all are dead.

☞ The Portland Courier says the Adjutant General is busily engaged in preparing a list of officers who have deserted or been discharged, in accordance with section 11, of "an act to provide for the support of families of Volunteers" approved March 25th, 1863. This roll will be completed and sent to various cities and towns, about the first of May.

☞ The Rockland Free Press thanks Burnside's policy of sending rebel sympathizers into Dixie, would operate well in that vicinity.

We see no good reason why they shouldn't go. Certainly they should not object to visiting their friends. They like the rebellion let them have the full benefit of it.

"Did you say Virginia was the Mother of Presidents," said a soldier of the Rappahannock who has "fit mit Sigel," "but I should say she is de mudder of us all." The remark was instantly sent across the river on a shingle, and caused a great sensation among the rebels.

Law is like a sieve: you may see through it but you must be considerably reduced before you can get through.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says that the Court Martial upon General Porter debated the question whether he should be shot or cashiered.

☞ The rebel Secretary of the Treasury estimates his wants at $50,000,000 per month.

☞ The Ship St. Paul, with a cargo of tea worth nearly a million of dollars, and largely insured in Boston, arrived safely at New Yorkon Friday last.

☞ It has been noticed in the recent western elections that the soldiers have voted more generally and thrown larger majorities against copperheadism, this year, than they did last.

Old Fashioned. A gentleman states that when a boy, he was one day in the office of his grandfather, who held a position under the Federal Government, and wishing to write he was about taking a sheet of letter paper from the desk. "What are you about there?" said the old gentleman. "Getting a sheet of paper," said he. "Put it back, sir, put it back," exclaimed the strictly honest official. "that paper belongs to the Government of the United States."

☞ Paul Murphy has recently been beaten at chess—three games out of five—by M. de Riviere, a furious player of Paris.

☞ Of Sir Tatton Sykes, the sporting baronet just dead, it is said that he never rode in a carriage but once in his life. On his wedding day he went home from church with his wife by it is (to him) unknown conveyance. He said afterwards that he did not find it so bad as he expected.

☞ So perfect were the Egyptians in the manufacture of perfumes that some of their ancient ointment, preserved in an alabaster vase in the Museum at Alnwick (England) still retains a very powerful odor, though it must be between 2,000 and 3,000 years old.

☞ Two other day a well-known New York "swell" laid a wager that he would collect twenty dollars in one day by sweeping a Broadway crosswalk. Arrayed in fashionable style, he took his station on a crossing near Grace Church, plying a ragged broom industriously, and holding his hat humbly to his contributors, until towards sundown, he cast his broom across the street, jumped into a carriage, and was whirled away with $27 15 in honest pennies and postal currency in his pocket.

Fire. The office of Drs Mayo and Muckey, in Hodlen, was slightly damaged by fire a few days since.

Railroad Accident. We learn that the freight train on the E. & P. Railroad broke through a bridge about seven miles above Augusta. Two or three cars went through. Only one person, a brakeman, whose name we did not learn, was badly injured.—Argus.

A Rare Boarder. A dead was lately received at the Register's office in Houlton, conveying tracts in wild lands in this county, from Dumaresq and Ireland of Boston, to Hinckley & Egery and Geo K. Jewett of Bangor, E. G. Dunn of Ashland, and E. D. Jewett of St. John, N. B. The consideration of the deed was $200,000, and required a border of revenue stamps to the value of $380.—Aroostook Times.

Return of the Fugitive Slave Sims. The Traveller says:

"Thomas Sims, well known as the first of the persons sent South from this city, under the provision of the Fugitive Slave Law, arrived here last night, with his family. He came direct from the vicinity of Vicksburg, having escaped from that city only three weeks ago.

From Mr. Sims we have gathered the following particulars of his experience since his enforced departure from this city:

Sims says that after being taken back to Savannah he was kept in jail for a short time, and would have been severely punished but for the sympathy manifested for him at the North. Soon after he was taken to Vicksburg, where he remained for ten or eleven years, working for the benefit of his master, at his trade as bricklayer. He is married and has one child, about eight years of age.

He escaped from Vicksburg in a "dug-out" boat, accompanied by his wife and child and three other men. He started directly for Boston, and would have been here before but he met been detained at Cincinnati by the illness of his wife and children. His report is that the rebels at Vicksburg are in a desperate condition. They have meat occasionally, but the larger portion of their living is bread and molasses. He thinks that within a year the rebels would give in even if our Army should not make any further move against them.

Personal. Rev. Mark Trafton, recently of Albany, and formerly a member of Congress from this State, assumed on Friday the pastoral charge of the County Street Methodist church, New Bedford.—Boston Journal.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza and the numerous maladies which lead to dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail, in our inclement climate, at all seasons of the year. Few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints—Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam, to so extensive not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.

BANGOR, Oct. 4, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co—Please send me a few dozen of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired upon its own merit alone. My customers assure me of their unlimited confidence in the medicine, and I consider it without a superior in the list of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and its demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours,

BENJ. O. FROST.

EradicatingDisease

The effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and blood, by removing all obstructions from the internal organs, stimulating them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, cleansing it from all humors, and causing it to course anew through every part of the body, restoring the invalid to health and usefulness. They cure and eradicate from the system Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, all kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Piles, Heartburn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid or diseased Liver, a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood, to which all are more or less subject in Spring and Summer.

More persons have been cured by this medicine than by all other Bitters in the world. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it, and you will never regret it.

To Housekeepers.

MAY-DAY FESTIVAL

The Ladies of the Bangor Branch of the Sanitary Commission appeal once more to the generosity of the Bangor housekeepers. Their aid is needed in furnishing the Breakfast Tables for May-Day.

The Committee are not unmindful of past favors, and in any other cause might feel a reluctance in asking upon their substance. The funds heretofore contributed are nearly exhausted. As long as it is necessary to send weekly to the soldiers from one to two hundred garments, so long it will be needed. Our supplies must continue while the war lasts. Come and Breakfast at the City Hall, May-day—contribute as generously as you have done—and the Committee promise you a pleasant occasion and their hearty thanks.

Cold Meats, Eggs, Cakes, &c., will be received at the City Hall, Thursday Afternoon, April 30th.

Despatches received at the War Department from Admiral Dahlgren, dated 14th inst., announce the capture of Fort Wagner by the land forces under General Gillmore, and that the fort was evacuated by the rebels on the night of the 6th inst. They also announce that the rebels had abandoned Fort Sumter, and that Admiral Dahlgren had taken possession of it. The rebels had also evacuated Morris Island, and the Stars and Stripes were floating over Fort Wagner and Battery Gregg. Admiral Dahlgren's despatches state that the rebels had left behind them 14 guns, all of which were spiked. Our loss in the recent engagements was 246 killed, wounded and missing. WASHINGTON, 27th

Navy Department has received a despatch from Admiral Porter on the Mississippi squadron, Yazoo River, 10th, accompanied by a letter from Lieut Commanding Thomas H Selfridge, Arkansas River, 11th, stating the arrival of Carondelet, Crystal, Rattler and Prairie at the mouth of Steele's bayou

Lieut Selfridge at Alexandria, made on Saturday last the first steamer through on that river and the distance between the two points 10 miles, and enables me to move through very completely."

Admiral Porter sends the following:

Mississippi Squadron,
Yazoo River, April 10th, 1863.

Sir: I have been threatened for some time with an attack from the Arkansas rebels in force, and every provision was made to meet it. Lieut Commanding Selfridge saw the difficulty of getting the mouths of Arkansas and White rivers to where I kept me far apart by a use-less vessel, and proposed to me to cut a canal across the point, which he set the boats to work on, and he passed through the canal, 4 hours after he cut the bank, a distance of over 10 miles.

WASHINGTON, 27th.

Letters received by the President from General Grant and Adjutant General Thomas state that before Vicksburg, 23d.

Grant announces that on the evening before six gunboats and 12 barges passed the Vicksburg batteries, which opened terrifically. The vessels Benton in Vicksburg previous to the occasion were fired to light up the river and enable the rebel gunners to see the range.

Many shots were discharged at the fleet. Some of the barges were hit. Only one steamer was struck badly enough to cause her to be abandoned. She floated three miles below Warrenton where she grounded, but all hands do not believe saved. Another steamer was somewhat injured, but can be easily repaired.

Many of the crews of the boats refused to go, and Grant remarks in making the fearful trip, the officers, belonging to the Illinois regiments, showed no boatman's work, the crews all stood behind

The most splendid success of throwing a powerful naval force below Vicksburg, was effected with the loss of only two men mortally wounded and a few more, not exceeding seven, slightly wounded

Many shots were made the targets of the rebel officers who lined the shore. The former were seen splintered in case they were not removed the pilot houses and exposed portions of the fire

Admiral Grant telegraphs that he considers the passage in view of its importance and the danger to which the boats were exposed a slight loss of men and property, a magnificent success

The Secretary of Indian Affairs has returned from a visit to New York, where he made arrangements to supply the Indian tribes with a liberal amount of blankets and other provisions.

There is no outbreak in Minnesota is reported, as a consequence of former extended trouble.

Congress at the late session, made appropriations necessary to the treaty with the Sioux Indians who have lately been committing depredations. The Indian bureau will at once take measures to secure their friendship

With the exception of the above mentioned tribes all are peaceable The treaty recently made with the Arapahoes, Cheyennes, Camanches and Kiowas, binds them to protect the overland mail route running through their territories. The entire Cherokees country has nearly been restored to loyalty, and all refugees now in Southern Kansas, will soon return to their homes from which the rebels drove them.

An official army order is published to-day, dismissing 16 officers who are required to appear before the military commission and make satisfactory defence for absence without proper leave, are dismissed In this connection another order appears giving the names of 23 officers previously advertised, saying they will not be dismissed, their defence not being satisfactory.—Such advertisements by government will be continued.

The distinguished visitors mentioned in yesterday's despatch, witnessed the review of a considerable body of troops to-day, and subsequently departed for Washington.

Richmond papers of to-day admit a loss of 5 Napoleon guns, and 140 men, on the Nansemond. All quiet there at last advices.

The Fredericksburg correspondent writes that his impression is confirmed that our army is withdrawing from the line of the Rappahannock.

The weather is warm and pleasant. Roads improving.

NEW YORK, 27th.

The only New Orleans paper received per steamer Potomac is the Picayune, which contains nothing whatever of importance to loyal persons

Capt Fuller, of the ram Queen of the West, and 180 other rebel prisoners, including seven commissioned officers, arrived at New Orleans on the 18th, via Opelousas railroad.

A Brashear City despatch of the 16th, copied from the Era, says the rebel gunboat Hart is destroyed, and 8 transports.

Also that our army marched on New Iberia this a.m., and stood pushing on.

The country is profuse with supplies.

MONTREAL, 27th.

Four steamers and some small craft arrived here to-day, from their winter quarters. Navigation is open to below the Sorel The ice bridge still holds fast at Quebec.

BANGOR BREWERY,

No. 103 Broad Street.

THE undersigned has the pleasure of informing the citizens of Bangor and vicinity that he has, at very large outlay, established a Brewery for the manufacture of the best brands of Ale My head brewer, Mr. Williamson, has no superior in the country, as all and experience, acquired by over fifteen years service in the largest Brewerier of London, New York and Boston.

The water used is from the famous Taylor spring and my yeast and hops are of the best quality, thus insuring the fullest flavors and the finest purity—Believing the public will appreciate this home enterprise, I shall spare no pains to furnish an article which shall meet their entire approbation.

I shall also manufacture a desirable article of Light Ale, especially for family use. My intention is to supply the trade, but for the present I shall accommodate the public in such quantities as may be desired.

My Ale is now on draft at the principal hotels and retail shops in the city.

HUNNEWELL'S
UNIVERSAL
COUGH REMEDY.

BASES its real claims to the confidence of the public by its perfect simplicity, and freedom from every component which in any way places restraint on its use, Day or Night, by Old or Young; but to find the real secret of its true character and results, to which thousands can testify, by its being made the Pocket, Bedside or Nursery Companion of all, and the enemy to all Throat and Lung Complaints, by using it every hour, if necessary, or when there is the least tickling in the Throat, or disposition to Cough. By such freedom of use it

CURES

Coughs,
Colds,
Sore Throat,
Bronchial Complaints,
Hoarseness
and all such as when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION!

To Public Speakers and Singers it is most valuable, as it goes to the foundation, clears the Throat, and prevents the prostration which follows great exertion.

As a Soothing Syrup its simplicity calls for special attention, as the most delicate infant may take it with the greatest freedom.

HUNNEWELL'S
TOLU ANODYNE!

This Preparation, by its splendid results, has shown the great necessity of a true Nervous and Spasmodic Remedy, which goes to its work on all such complaints, completely relieving the pains, and leaving no state of debility behind.

As most complaints of this nature proceed from inward causes, they are reached only through the stomach, and in most of them, time and money is wasted by the use of Liniments and Lotions.

Let this preparation be fairly tested and it will be found to stay the name and fame of a true

ANODYNE!

IT CURES

Neuralgia,
Rheumatism,
Gout,
Tooth Ache,
Ear Ache,
Nervous Head Ache,
Distress after eating,
Fits,
Histeria,
Nervousness,
Spinal Complaint,
St. Vitus Dance,
Cholera Morbus,
Pains in Stomach and Bowels.
also, the chief of all causes of disease and insanity
LOSS OF SLEEP

To the Sleepless instead it gives the most refreshing sleep.

To Females, suffering the pains of Monthly Menstruation, it completely relieves, while Nature's work is undisturbed. This is of great importance, as from this source dates most, if not all, wrecks to the Nervous System, and Chronic Female Complaints.

For Stomach, or Tape Worms, it is a sure remedy.

For children, when Teething, it completely soothes the pain, by diluting with milk and rubbing the Gums. When very severe give it in 5 to 10 drop doses in milk, and it is a perfect relief.

HUNNEWELL'S
ECLECTIC PILL.

This Valuable and Simple PILL rests for character on being the true type of a CATHARTIC,—simple, though thorough in action, seldom requiring but a SINGLE PILL for a dose or one at night and one at morning—acts without the least griping.

AND CURES

Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Biliousness,
Loss of Appetite,
Jaundice,
Humors, &c., &c.

For HEAD ACHE, when caused by a foul Stomach, they are a perfect relief.

For WORMS are a perfect remedy.

As a FAMILY PILL they have no superior.

WARRANT!

My own confidence allows that agents may refund money when satisfaction is not given.

THE OLD
HOMESTEAD TONIC.

LET our possessions be what they may—marble palaces, broad lands, magnificent plate or caskets of "precious stones"—they all sink in the balance as against Heaven's great boon, HEALTH, and they cannot be enjoyed without it. The language of nature attests that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food, the beauties of flowers and landscapes, the joys of companionship, the richness of literature, or the honors of station and renown must preserve their health. And yet how little is it valued, and how carelessly preserved. The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body derive their sustenance. When fruit, injurious food enters the stomach, acute sympathy disorganizes all other organs, and disease more or less painful must follow. The laws of nature cannot be violated with impunity. Night revelry, luxurious living, irregularity of meals, and a disordered appetite, will gradually destroy the power and activity of the stomach. How many ladies and gentlemen eat and drink disease at late suppers, and arise in the morning with headache, loss of appetite, feeling languid, unrefreshed, feverish, low spirited, weak and incapacitated to perform any mental or physical duty, and dream not this is the beginning of that horrid disease, which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay! There can be no medical remedy that will turn lead into food, or poisoned drinks into nourishment, but medical science can assist nature, supply exhausted fluids, and to a great extent, correct the effects of disease, when the habits are abandoned.

The Medical Faculty has exhausted its research for generations in creating appetizers and overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients were well established as possessing beneficial qualities; among these were Calisaya Bark and St. Croix Rum. But still components were wanting, and regularity could not be obtained. An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix observed the habits of the natives and gathered from them the receipt for the final accomplishment of this most important end. Its component parts largely incorporated in the vegetable diet of that island, produced the effect without a proper knowledge of the cause. The article was first made and used as a private medicine. Its effects were so salutary that it is now being produced and consumed in immense quantities under the name of "Drake's Plantation Bitters, or Old Homestead Tonic."— They act with the power of a medicine, and are taken by old and young with the pleasure of a beverage. The sale of these Bitters was at first confined to our extreme Southern cities, but they are now becoming well known throughout the world, and are recommended with the most unbounded confidence, for all complaints originating from a disorganized or diseased Stomach, such as Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Nervous affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittant Fevers, Diarrhœa, Sour Stomach, Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, &c.

As a morning appetizer, and after dinner tonic, they are held in high estimation, and should be found upon the side board of every family. They are also much relied upon in the Tropics for Scrofula, Rheumatism and Dropsy.

S.—T.—1860—X.

That you may be your own judge, the efficacy of these celebrated Bitters, we submit a partial formula of the articles of which they are composed: St. Croix Rum. The tonic properties of pure St. Croix Rum are well known, and it has long been recommended by physicians. It is manufactured from the Sugar Cane Plant, and that we use is selected with great care from the estates of a few planters in the interior of that island. Calisaya, or King's Bark, was unknown to civilization until the middle of the seventeenth century. The natives of Peru are generally supposed to have been long previous acquainted with its most wonderful medicinal qualities. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an antidote to FEVER AND AGUE, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels.

CASCARILLA BARK is another important ingredient. It was known in Germany as early as 1790, and much used as a substitute for Peruvian Syrup. It is employed as a gentle stimulant and tonic in Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholic, Dysentery and Diseases of the stomach and bowels. DANDELION is used for inflammation of the loins and spleen, in cases of biliary secretions and dropsical affections, dependent on obstructions of the abdominal viscera, and derangement of the digestive organs generally.— CHAMOMILE FLOWERS used for enfeebled digestion and want of appetite. WINTERGREEN is a medicinal plant of very great efficiency, and is especially valuable in Scrofula, Rheumatism and Nervous affections. LAVENDER FLOWERS, an aromatic stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in nervous debility, generous to the palate and stomach. ANISE, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing. S—T—1860—X. Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtues, used in the preparation of these Bitters—is a native of Brazil and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says: * * * * * "administered with St. Croix rum, it never fails to relieve Nervous tremor, Wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c.; and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilian, Spanish and Peruvian ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, and brilliancy to the complexion." We withhold its name from the public for the present.

To the above are added, Clove buds, Orange, Carraway, Coriander and Snake root. The whole is combined by a perfect chemical process, and under the immediate supervision of a skillful and scientific Pharmaceutist.

"Drake's Plantation Bitters," or "Old Homestead Tonic," are put up in Patent Bottles, representing a Swiss cottage and are an ornament to the side board.

Sea Sickness, Travellers by railroad or upon the inland rivers, where the great change of water is such a prolific cause of incipient disease like Billious, Intermittent Ague and Chill Fevers, may feel a certain reliance, if they protect themselves with these Bitters. The muddy water of the Western rivers, filled with decayed vegetable and animal matter, is quite sure to produce disease unless guarded by an antidote, such as is found in the Plantation Bitters.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE PLANTATION BITTERS.

"Philadelphia, 1st month, 18th day, 1862.

ESTEEMED FRIEND: Wilt thou send me another Case of thy Bitters? Nothing has proven so beneficial or agreeable to my invalid wife and myself, as the Plantation Bitters.

Thy Friend, ISAAC HOWLAND."

N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters is, their tested purity. The St. Croix Rum and every article used, is warranted perfectly pure.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to sustain the reputation of the article upon its merit.

Be careful that every bottle bears the fac simile signature of the Proprietors, P. H. DRAKE & Co, New York.

Drake's PLANTATION BITTERS are sold by all Druggists, Grocers, Hotels and Restaurants.

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber, and as success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.
